RUMORS OF CHANGES.

The Force at Detective Hendquarters Involved.

ers are again prevalent to the effect that changes are to be made in the detail of men now doing duty at detective headcourters and speculation is lively as to en they will occur and who will be affected by them, Recently an order was issued detailing Detective Boyd, who had been doing duty in the second precinct to work at headquarters under Inspector Feath 2 first class business hause in this territory. Applyr with refs. to J. A. BALLEY, Boardman. This detail, it was said, was a temporary one, and was only for the day, Wednesday, and Thursday.

It is customary at this time of the year to augment the regular detective force at beadquarters by temporarily adding to it such men from the different precincts as the chief of police may designate for special duty. The detail of Detective Boyd was the first to occur, and it is more than probable that other men will soon be assigned in a similar manner.

It has been rumored for some time that changes were to be made in the personnel of the detective office. Detectives now on duty there, it was said, would be re-moved and sent back to precinct duty. while men from the precincts who had shown a particular adaptability in the prevention and detection of crime would be detailed to fill the vacancies caused by the removals. The removals, it must be understood, should they occur, will not be due to any inefficiency on the part of the present headquarters men. They will simply be returned to former duty in order to make way for and give a chance to the younger talent which is being developed. This being the holiday season, the more fact that rumors of changes are current would ordinarily have but little significance but inasmuch as at the time of the recent change in the inspectorship wanted—Young lady to canvass and solicithere was talk of a general shake-up business for first class house of many years among the subordinates, it is generally conceded that any change made at pres-ent would be of a permanent, rather than a temporary nature.

WEARING STOLEN JEWELRY. Detective Hartigan Ceptures

Bernard F. Keenan, thirty-four years old, who gave his occupation as a drygoods clerk, but who is said to be known goods clerk, but who is said to be known as a clever crook, who has served two jall sentences, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Hartigan, of the Sixth Precinct, and locked up at No. 6 Vok ave. nu.
station, on a charge of grand larceny. WANTED-Cole and the amount involved, including a handsome diamond ring, a watch and chain, and cash, is $422. The robbery was committed a few days ago at the home of Mr. Kauffman, at No. 629 If Street northwest, where Keenan had been stop-

Detective Hartigan, after a prolonged search, succeeded in locating Keeman in company with a woman at No. 563 Sheridan Avenue. The woman, it is said, is married, and through the jealousy of her husband the pair was located. Keeman was wearing the diamond ring when arrested. The watch and chain had been disposed of, but will be recovered. Keenan was cool and refused to make my statement.

Keenan at one time was arrested by Detective Weedon for the larceny of $170 from the room of a man with whom Keenan had been living. For that offense he was restanced to serve three years in the pentitentiary. When arrested yester-Keenan was on his way to the railroad station to take a train for Pitts-burg. He will be taken to the detective headquarters this morning and photo-graphed for the rogues gallery. He will probably be arraigned tomorrow.
